After an illness of a few days, Mrs. Oscar J. Ricketts, wife of former Acting Public Printer Oscar J. Ricketts, died yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Garfield Hospital.

Mrs. Ricketts was stricken with intestinal trouble Monday evening. Drs. Dillenbach and T. S. Stone pronounced her ailment peritonitis and had her removed to the hospital on Tuesday evening. An operation was immediately performed. Although her illness was at all times considered serious, it was not thought she was so near death. Her husband and members of the family were at the bedside constantly since Tuesday, and were present when she expired yesterday.

Previous Health Excellent. Mrs. Ricketts had enjoyed the best of health, and recently remarked to friends at a dinner that she had never felt better in her life. Last Saturday night she was hostess at an informal reception at her home, 1729 Columbia road. Sunday, in company with Mr. Ricketts, she spent the day at the Columbia Golf Club.

Mrs. Ricketts was formerly Miss Katie H. Mahony, and was born in New York City January 29, 1866. She came here with her parents at an early age, and received her education in the public schools of this city. She afterward attended Notre Dame Academy, North Capitol and K streets.

Although a member of several charitable societies, Mrs. Ricketts enjoyed her home life. She was regarded by her friends as a woman of great kindness and generosity.

Her Father an Expert Bookbinder. Her father, Daniel Mahony, was considered one of the most expert bookbinders in the government service.

Mrs. Ricketts is survived by her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Eynon, Jr.; her sister, Mrs. E. J. Corey, and three brothers, Felix Mahony, formerly of the Washington Star; William F. and James A. Mahony, all of this city.

The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from the family residence, 1729 Columbia road. Rev. U. G. B. Pierce will officiate at the house, and will read the final prayers at the grave. Interment will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Bratton, who died Friday, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her brother, Herman Kirsch, 18 L street northwest. Mrs. Bratton lived on Congress Heights for a number of years.

Christian Xander.

Only relatives and a few invited friends will be present at the funeral services of Christian Xander, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at his home, 906 Seventh street northwest. Rev. Paul A. Menzel, pastor of the Concordia Lutheran Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Prospect Hill Cemetery. The pallbearers will be Edward H. Droop, John A. Cameron, George W. Saylor, Richard von Eyndorf, Maj. Charles D. Loeffler, and John Waldman, president of the Saengerbund.

John M. Gummill.

The funeral of John M. Gummill, of Sub Rosa, Franklin County, Ark., who died at the Emergency Hospital, Thursday, from injuries in a street car accident at Twelfth street and New York avenue, took place yesterday afternoon from Schipper's Chapel, 208 Pennsylvania avenue. The body will rest temporarily in Glenwood Cemetery. Later it will be shipped to Sub Rosa. Senator Jeff Davis had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Gummill was struck while returning from the Capitol, where he had met Senator Davis. Through Senator Davis' efforts, Rev. C. H. Holmsted, assistant rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiated in the chapel and at the grave.

JEROME DEFENDS WHITNEY

District Attorney Testifies Before Commissioner Hand.

Taking of Testimony Closes—Summing Up Will Be on May 26.

New York, May 9.—The taking of testimony in the King committee proceedings against Mr. Jerome ended to-day.

Mr. Jerome and Lawyer Franklin Pierce will begin their summing up, probably in Elizabethtown, on May 26. Mr. Jerome himself suggested Elizabethtown for the final act.

Mr. Jerome closed the hearings here with a characteristic bit of testimony about the development of his field of knowledge since he became district attorney. Mr. Pierce cross-examined Jerome on his opinion of William C. Whitney and Thomas F. Ryan.

He pointed out that during Jerome's campaign for re-election he had applied some harsh terms to both Whitney and Ryan. Mr. Jerome said that any one who knew William C. Whitney would not believe him a thief. He had changed his opinion about Ryan because of obtaining knowledge of the man.

Justice Seabury was called as a witness by Mr. Pierce. Mr. Jerome had repeatedly in the course of the proceedings against him characterized the jury-fixing investigation undertaken by Justice Seabury when he was in the City Court as one of the most indecent exhibitions he had ever seen in a court.

Justice Seabury asked the privilege of making a statement, and said: "I do not consider my actions or conduct needs any apology, and I am not here to make one." "I'm sorry my opinion is treated so lightly," said Mr. Jerome.

"I treat it with contempt," said the justice, leaving the stand.

Assistant District Attorney Smyth, under cross-examination, said he had had about fifteen conferences with Louis E. Julian, the former investigator of the Metropolitan, who complained to Jerome of abuse about jury-fixing. Julian contends that he told Smyth about having overheard a conversation between Stanley Bagge and Ambrose F. McCabe about paying a "ringer" juror. Smyth denies that Julian ever gave him any corroboratory evidence.

Mr. Smyth wanted to know if Mr. Smyth had done anything to try to verify the Tillingshast charges about jury fixing. "Yes," said Mr. Smyth. "We made a search for the Metropolitan vouchers, to use them as corroboratory of the payments of jurors' fees."

ON TRIP TO NORFOLK

Clarence F. Norment Host of Large Party.

TO STOP AT OLD POINT TO-DAY

Steamer Newport News Started from Wharf Yesterday Afternoon and Will Return To-morrow Morning. Sunday to Be Spent at Some Point Down River—Personnel of Party.

It was a merry group of railroad men, bankers, brokers, municipal officials, justices of the local courts, and attorneys that gathered at the Seventh street wharf yesterday afternoon to take a trip down the river and bay to Norfolk. Old Point, and Newport News as the guests of Clarence F. Norment, president of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company.

This function has become an annual affair with Mr. Norment. Each year one of the company's boats carries down upon the excursion the best citizens of Washington for a two days' outing at the lower bay ports.

Yesterday the trip was made in the steamer Newport News, which carried about 150 of Mr. Norment's business associates and friends. A part of the delegation was taken on at Marshall Hall, whither those invited had gone to attend the annual shad bake and excursion of the District Bar Association. Among those to embark there were the justices of the city courts, Commissioner Macfarland, and others.

Among the guests were Frank A. Vandenberg, C. C. Glover, Charles J. Bell, Milton E. Allen, Martin A. Knapp, George E. Hamilton, Edward J. Stellwagen, W. B. Hibbs, William Loeb, Jr., John Joy Edson, and Clarence Moore.

Distinguished Party Aboard.

The party included the heads of the departments connected with the Washington Railway and Electric Company, the Capital Traction Company, the officers and directors of the steamboat company, the officers and directors of the Bank of Washington, the executive committee of the American Security and Trust Company, the judiciary of the District, several Senators and Representatives in Congress, the Commissioners of the District, and a large company of the personal friends of Mr. Norment.

The trip will last until to-morrow morning, allowing the guests to spend Sunday at one of the stopping places on the lower bay. Their rendezvous to-day will be at the Hotel Chamberlin, at Old Point Comfort. There was much shaking of hands and friendly greeting at the wharf as the company gathered, preparatory to departure, about 3 o'clock yesterday.

When Gen. George H. Harries arrived, of course in a great hurry, a loud shout arose: "Here comes the army, and now we shall be amply protected." Gen. Harries received the greetings of his friends, who were all those there, and, as good luck would have it, he was ten minutes early for the trip.

The last passengers to arrive were the jovial "Billy" Hibbs and his side-partner, William Loeb, Jr. They came steaming up in an automobile, after the boat whistle had blown the conventional three times, and had to hustle to get aboard before the gang plank was pulled in. Sol Minister and an orchestra of six pieces went on the boat to furnish music.

Personnel of Party.

Among those going upon the trip besides those mentioned were the following: Commissioners Morrie and West, Representative Jesse Overstreet, George Truesdell, Gen. George H. Harries, Charles T. Yerkes, Comptroller Truesdell, Chief Justice Callahan, Cuno H. Busch, Maj. Richard Streeter, Thomas Gale, Charles A. Douglas, W. B. Hooke, Henry Hurt, John L. Weaver, Ward Thorne, A. C. Moses, Andrew Parker, T. C. R. Dix, D. S. Corli, F. J. Whithead, ex-Senator James B. Jones, James B. Henderson, William J. Flather, John E. Herrell, Howard S. Reside, R. W. Henderson, George E. Fleming, Frederick B. McViney, J. Thilman Hendrick, Harry Wardman, Charles T. Lusk, John Alden, Odell S. Smith, Daniel E. Fraser, E. W. Woodward, A. M. Lethrop, Ralph W. Lee, E. P. May, Col. A. E. Handie, James M. Green, Charles E. White, J. Henry Small, Leri Woodbury, Edward Stevens, D. M. Ryalls, P. C. Kane, D. J. Callahan, Edward Weston, Charles Shafer, James O. Carter, Allen D. Cleaver, Joseph Sals, J. M. Belt, Edward Graves, S. S. Letz, and Meyer Cohen.

DENIES MRS. GOULD'S PLEA.

Court Says Divorce Case Cannot Be Taken to Jury.

New York, May 9.—Justice Dowling, of the Supreme Court, denied to-day the application of Katherine Clemmons Gould for a jury trial of her suit for a separation from Howard E. Gould. In his decision Justice Dowling says:

"In an action for a separation from bed and board, neither party is entitled to a trial of any of the issues by a jury as a matter of right. The granting of a trial is a matter of judicial discretion to be exercised only in a proper case."

"The uniform trend of the decision is against the trial of any issues by a jury in matrimonial actions save that of adultery, which is provided by statute." "In consequence of the decision, unless it be reversed on appeal, Mrs. Gould's suit will be tried in special term before a justice, and without a jury. Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for Mrs. Gould, said to-day that an appeal would certainly be taken from the order of Justice Dowling, which will mean a postponement of the actual trial until the fall."

HAWAII TO THE FORE

During the coming week The Washington Herald offers its readers an exceptional feature in the form of a series of articles from Honolulu by Frederic J. Hanks.

The facts about conditions in Hawaii are essentially important to all Americans, because Hawaii is not an "insular possession" of the United States, as New Mexico or Arizona. There are no more loyal Americans in the entire Union than those in Hawaii, and there should be a better acquaintance and more sympathetic relationship between them and the other Yankees on the mainland.

Read the Hanks letter in today's issue, and if you are not a regular subscriber become one at once. The articles will appear every day.

DEBS THEIR LEADER

Socialists to Nominate Him for the Presidency.

HAYWOOD NOT ON THE TICKET

Ante-convention Slate Arranged by Leaders on the Ground at Chicago. Ignores Labor Leader's Campaign. Issue to Be Socialism Pure and Simple—Many Delegates on Hand.

Chicago, May 9.—Eugene V. Debs, of Girard, Kans., editor of the Appeal to Reason, will be the nominee for President of the United States of the Socialist party. William D. Haywood, former secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, the other man whose name has been mentioned, is not to be on the ticket in any capacity if the present plan is carried out. This does not mean that Haywood has been repudiated.

"The coming campaign is to be the most bitterly contested in the history of the party," one leader explained. "We expect to poll more than a million votes. But in addition to making this showing in November we are anxious to educate the people. Therefore we must name Debs and make the issue of the campaign socialism and not Haywoodism. The Idaho or the Colorado, or the Nevada labor troubles must not be injected into the issue."

"The national convention of the party will get down to work Sunday. Most of the delegates are here. Probably never before in its history has the organization been so well represented as at this convention. Millionaire members who have been derisively dubbed 'parlor fighters,' are rubbing elbows with the rank and file. And all are for Debs. He is not here and his best friends say he will not come. But the delegates as a whole expect him, and in anticipation of his coming are preparing a whirlwind welcome."

Split Over Immigration.

Before the nominations are finally made there will be a locking of horns on several questions. One of these may disrupt the organization unless care is taken. This is the question of restriction of immigration.

At the international conference in Stuttgart, the "world wide party" went on record as favoring opposition to immigration restriction. This was repudiated by the national executive committee in this country, which adopted a resolution declaring in favor of certain restrictions, especially as they included the Oriental races.

From the Pacific Coast comes an almost solid delegation which favors the adoption of a resolution providing the pledging of the party to restriction of immigration "so far as it applies to laborers coming from Oriental countries and such other sections of the globe where the inhabitants are backward in economic questions and do not assimilate the idea of socialism."

Delegates from Michigan, Minnesota, and North Dakota will make an attempt to have a prohibition plank adopted. There will be much talk against injunctions in labor disputes, and it is expected a plank opposing them will be adopted. The tentative platform denounces the old parties, declaring they "struggle to maintain an industrial system which can be preserved only by the complete overthrow of liberties."

It declares Congress and the State legislatures are only agencies of great property interests.

Universities, public school, press, pulpit, arts, and literature in the United States are all declared to be controlled by the enemies of the people.

The opening session of the convention will be held in Brand's Hall Sunday morning. The session will be devoted entirely to perfecting a temporary organization.

The delegates representing Michigan and the States west of the Mississippi River held an informal conference, at which it was decided to vote as a unit. By this means they expect to prevent what they term "Eastern domination."

The delegation approved the tentative draft of the platform.

A boom for J. G. Phelps-Stokes, of New York, for Vice President, was started on the arrival of the Eastern delegates.

ALL INDORSE JOHNSON.

Minnesota Counties Enthusiastic for Candidate.

St. Paul, May 9.—Gov. John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, was endorsed by every Democratic county convention in the State to-day.

In nearly every convention the Bryanites had representatives, but every motion to instruct for Bryan or to send delegates uninstructed was voted down.

Laying of the corner-stone, preceded by the depositing of the copper box of documents. Benediction by Bishop Cranston.

At a meeting yesterday of the board of governors of the Bureau of American Republics, final details of the corner-stone laying of the Pan-American Peace Palace were agreed upon.

This ceremony will take place at Van Ness Park, overlooking the Potomac, at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and will be the most pompous ceremony probably ever indulged in by all the republics in the western hemisphere.

President Roosevelt will deliver the principal address, while Secretary of State Root will preside. An address will also be made by Andrew Carnegie, who contributed $750,000 toward the construction of the $1,000,000 building for the bureau.

Every one of the twenty-one republics will be represented by their accredited ambassadors and ministers to this country.

In a great amphitheater, with the corner-stone forming the center of a Spanish patio, 3,000 of the highest officials in Washington and their wives will be seated.

The Senate, Supreme Court, and House of Representatives will be present, in sections reserved for them.

From the New York Tribune.

Gov. Johnson seems to have carried Minnesota against the Bryan forces. His victory there is minimized, however, by the fact that all the neighboring States—North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, and Wisconsin—have been carried by Bryan.

Credulity.

From Judge.

No one is so credulous as a little child—except an inventor taking out a patent.
